1. One of the objectives of the Liga Democratica Cultural China (LDCC), which is the center of Chinese Communist activities in Cuba, is the penetration and infiltration of Communists into Chinese associations and clubs all over Cuba.
2. Organized by members connected with the first staff of the Soviet Legation in Cuba, the LDCC is older than the Alianza Nacional de Apoyo a la Democracia China (ANADC-National Association of Aid to Chinese Democracy), an affiliate of the Partido Socialista Popular (PSP-Cuban Communist Party). The League was last known to have headquarters in Zanza Street, Habana, Cuba.
3. Jose Wong, head of the LDCC, is a member of the PSP's international section. Wong has connections with Salomon Meller, a Cuban Communist and suspected Soviet intelligence organizer for Latin America.
